Quick Notes about Chief (b)(6)&(b)(7)(C) interview with Univision's AL PUNTO with JORGE RAMOS
<https://www.univision.com/shows/al-punto/tenemos-colchones-galletas-burritos-y-medicos-jefa-de-la-patrulla-fronteriza-responde-ante-denuncias-de-maltratos-en-centros-de-detencion-video>

Mr. Ramos opens the interview with the mention of 2 letters from kids in detention centers (not clear if it's CBP) saying that we were treated like trash, that they were asked why the (EXPLETIVE) were they trying to come to the US

The other letter said that they gave them terrible food and that they were housed in a dog pound in which our rights were taken away.

Ramos, proceeds to ask Chief Chavez the following questions. Why mistreatment in our centers? And how do you justify the mistreatment?

Chief Chavez response was consistent with our current talking points explaining that in the past several months CBP has been warning everyone about the challenges of the current flow of UACs and FMUAs present, and the fact that our facilities are not designed to house the number of individuals that we're receiving.

Ramos continues to focus on the letters and asks again about the allegations of mistreatment. Chavez counters with the fact that we respect the law and that we follow the guidelines of the Flores Agreement in addition to humane and protective measures to protect minors. Ramos pushes back by transitioning into a clip of Congresswoman Norma Torres in which she says, that the conditions have not improved, that the children are being tortured in these refrigerators. And then she asked the interviewer to imagine a kid alone in a jail cell asking for his/her parents.

Chavez responds by saying that it worries her that people are making all these allegations without facts. And says that CBP tracks food intake, medical care, sleeping conditions and many other elements while the children are in our custody.

Mr. Ramos transitions into a question about the recently discovered private FB Group and asks Chief Chavez about how can she justify what was said in that forum.

Chief Chavez (b)(7)(E) her response about the FB groups by saying that the expressions made were repulsive, toxic and repugnant. That the comments were not easy to accept as a public servant. She closed her statement by saying that CBP works very hard to respect human rights and that CBP is investigating the incident. And that she fully understands and values freedom of speech but that the statement made by this group are not tolerated.
